Pastor Midthun At Convention

The Rev. Maynard Midthun, pastor of Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182nd St., and president of the Torrance Ministerial Assn., is attending as a delegate the Biennial Convention of the American Lutheran Church in Milwaukee, Wis., today through Wednesday.

Pastor Midthun, along with four other pastors and five laymen, will represent the Los Angeles area.

Far-reaching decisions will be made, church officials said, "effecting the denomination's world, national and community relationships."

The ALC, which has its national office in Minneapolis, Minn., began functioning Jan. 1, 1961, as the result of a three-way church merger. Its 2.4 million members make it one of the nation's 10 largest Protestant church bodies in the United States.

ONE CONVENTION issue will be whether the ALC shall continue its membership in the World Council of Churches. Opponents of the WCC have carried on a vigorous campaign for withdrawal. The issue will be a special order of business Saturday.

Further steps toward cooperation with other Lutheran bodies are anticipated at the Milwaukee meeting.

A long term plan for internal borrowing of money will be proposed.

In addition to voting delegates, several hundred visitors are expected to attend.

CHURCHES OF the American Lutheran Church in our area are: the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, Redondo Beach; Loving Shepherd Lutheran Church, Gardena; Ascension Lutheran Church, Rolling Hills; Trinity Lutheran Church, San Pedro; First Lutheran Church, Christ the King Lutheran Church and Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, Torrance.

COLLEGE PIANIST TO PERFORM HERE

Dr. Robert Haag, pianist and music instructor at El Camino College, will present a piano concert in the El Camino Campus Theater tomorrow evening at 8:30.

This will be Dr. Haag's fourth annual fall piano concert. He will be assisted by a chamber music ensemble of woodwind instruments.

Numbers included in the program are "Sonata in D Major, Opus 28" by Beethoven, "Variations and Fugue on a Theme" by Handel, "Opus 24" by Brahms, and "Quintet in E Flat Major, K. 452" by Mozart.

Accompanying Dr. Haag in the "Quintet in E Flat Major, K. 452" will be Ralph Mills, clarinet; Jerry Foote, oboe; Thomas Greer, French horn, and Milton Marcus, bassoon.

There will be no admission charge and seats will not be reserved. The public is invited.

World's Largest Rummage Sale Scheduled Oct. 25

The 95th semiannual rummage sale, sponsored by the Pasadena Auxiliary of Boys Republic, will be held in Pasadena Civic Auditorium on Thursday, Oct. 25th, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The "World's Largest Rummage Sale" has 23 departments filled with bargains from donors over a wide area of Southern California.

Proceeds from each sale help the Auxiliary in the furthering of projects at Boys Republic, the 215-acre non-profit, non-sectarian farm school and home for more than 125 boys, located at Chino.

Mrs. William Norwood, president, announces the departments will be staffed from the 301 Auxiliary members, its many friends, and well known civic and business leaders.

Botanic Garden Building Begun

The first permanent building at the Botanic Garden located in Rolling Hills was started Saturday. Using materials from the Department of Arboretum and Botanic Gardens, members of the foundation will construct a 30-by-40-foot green house in the southeast corner of the garden.

Donald P. Woolley, superintendent of the Rolling Hills Botanic Garden, reports final building and landscaping plans have been approved. A sprinkler system has been installed and the total plant species will number around 300 by the end of November.
